

Sale of 2D seismic data pertaining to speculative survey undertaken by DGH in east coast and west coast of india. ∴

Directorate General of Hydrocarbons has awarded the job to GX Technology (GXT), USA under the project India Span for acquiring 2D seismic data (marked in crimson colour in the attached map) in west coast and east coast of India.

Directorate General of Hydrocarbons has awarded the job to GX Technology (GXT), USA under the project India Span for acquiring 2D seismic data (marked in crimson colour in the attached map) in west coast and east coast of India. High quality 2D seismic data with 10 km streamer length and 18 sec record length has been acquired (detail of acquisition parameters is attached)and processed in time and depth domain by M/S GXT.

The processed data will be available to E&P companies at a For purchase, interested companies may contact DGH.